

DYNAMIC SEALING

CONTENT

	page
1 - GENERAL
1.1 What is a seal ?	347
1.2 Types of seals	348
1.3 Description of lip seals	349
2 - MATERIALS USED
2.1 Armatures	350
2.2 Springs	350
2.3 Elastomers	350
3 - SELECTION OF A SEAL FOR A ROTATING SHAFT
3.1 Type of fluid to be sealed	351
3.2 Shaft speed	353
3.3 Pressure	353
4 - CONDITIONS FOR GOOD OPERATION
4.1 The housing	354
4.2 The shaft	355
4.3 Eccentricity between the housing and the shaft	355
4.4 Whipping and out of true	356
4.5 Power absorbed due to friction	356
5 - ASSEMBLY OF SEALS
5.1 Assembly on a shaft without splines	357
5.2 Assembly on a shaft with splines or a shoulder	357
5.3 PAULSTRA recommendations for the shape of the shaft	358
5.4 Axial positioning and alignment	358
5.5 Recommendations for the assembly tool	359
5.6 Lubrication during assembly	360
5.7 Reminder of the main principles of assembly	360
6 - CLASSIFICATION OF THE MAIN PROFILES OF LIP SEALS	361
Catalogue of seals for rotating shafts	362
Catalogue of seals for sliding shafts	376

See current price list for availability of items.

We reserve the right to modify the design and manufacture of the products and materials described in this catalogue.

The pictures and schemas of the products are supplied for information only.